About the Medco Tour of Champions

Bob Beamon, Peggy Fleming, Bruce Jenner, Jackie Joyner-Kersey, Greg Louganis and Mark Spitz are all known for their athletic achievements but few people are aware that each of them is dealing with a chronic or complex healthcare condition. Today they are guided by Medco specialist pharmacists who focus on their specific diseases. These champions are traveling the country, providing encouragement to the millions of Americans who receive treatment for chronic and complex medical conditions.

These gold medalists share their stories of courage, achievement and challenge to underscore the importance of specialized pharmacy care in maintaining good health.
